

Networking For Future Earns ISO 9001:2015 Re-Certification

WASHINGTON, January 6, 2020 – Networking For Future, Inc. (NFF) today announced that the Standards American Registrations Authority \(SARA\), an accredited International Organization for Standardization (ISO) registrar, has recognized the NFF quality management system (QMS) for completing its ISO 9001:2015 re-certification audit in 2019 without any non-conformities. NFF was first recognized with the ISO 9001:2008 certification in 2014.

The ISO 9001:2015 standard is based on several QMS principles including:

- A strong customer focus
- The motivation and participation of top management
- The process approach to continual improvement
- Evidence-based decision making
- Relationship management

“NFF is committed to continuous improvement and industry leadership for its information technology (IT) business solutions.” stated Hess Fatemi, chief executive officer of NFF. “Passing the ISO 9001:2015 re-certification audit shows that NFF is serious about customer service and delivering the best product and/or service to our clients.”

Majid Saadat, president of NFF, commented, “As a custom IT business solution provider, the ISO 9001:2015 certification ensures NFF has the principals and practices in place to design and deliver IT business solutions that focus on optimizing our client’s performance and productivity.”
