IMPORTANT CISCO SECURE REMOTE LEARNING SOLUTION INFORMATION

All of us at Networking For Future (NFF) are committed to supporting you during this challenging time. We want you to know about the many Cisco resources that are available to you for up to 90 days at no cost or with extended trial license periods and expanded usage counts. Our Cisco certified engineers can help you enhance support for your employees as they work remotely to continue your business operations.

Cisco Webex Support
- Remote support for all members of the community through the Internet
- Desktop and application sharing, with audio / video / chat

Cisco Webex Meetings
- Present information, share applications, and collaborate on projects
- Internal and external meetings, project coordination, group collaboration, with audio / video / chat

Cisco Webex Training
- Online training and distance learning, with support for payment processing
- Testing and grading
- Breakout sessions

Cisco Webex Events
- Host large-scale online events for up to 3,000 participants
- Webinars, events and conferences, internal communications

Cisco DUO
- Cloud-based multi-factor authentication
- Monitor device health
- Define security requirements at the user, device, and application level, based on contextual factors

Cisco Umbrella
- Enables secure access to the Internet and usage of cloud applications
- Domain Name System (DNS) security and interactive threat intelligence

Cisco AnyConnect Secure Mobility Client
- Virtual Private Network (VPN) and Adaptive Security Virtual Appliance

Cisco Advanced Malware Protection (AMP)
- Endpoint security blocks malware at the point of entry and removes malware from PCs, Macs, and mobile devices
- Add AMP capabilities to local or cloud email and web security appliances

---

For more information contact NFF Sales at sales@nffinc.com or call 202-783-9011.