

Networking For Future Earns Spot on Federal Reserve System IT Consulting Contract

WASHINGTON, January 27, 2021 – Networking For Future, Inc. (NFF) today announced that it has secured a position on the indefinite quantity contract from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (BGFRS) to support 2021 Information Technology (IT) Consulting.

The 2021 IT Consulting contract is a strategic sourcing vehicle for contracted personnel to provide organizational-level IT services for BGFRS. Under the multiple-award contract, NFF will support the staff augmentation requirements to enable BGFRS' mission success.

“Leveraging our exceptional capabilities as a technology solutions provider and technology staffing firm, NFF is excited to help support the mission of BGFRS's IT team,” stated Hess Fatemi, chief executive officer of NFF. “NFF has the right combination of IT professional services and staffing experience to ensure the continuity and stability of the 2021 IT Consulting program.”

“We are proud to continue our support of BGFRS' work and eager to immediately provide value through our IT staffing agility and experience,” commented Majid Saadat, president of NFF. “This award further demonstrates NFF's proven ability to provide customers with world-class IT consulting services in support of their most critical efforts.”
