

Networking For Future Participates In Maryland Association of Counties Summer Conference

WASHINGTON, August 24, 2021 – Networking For Future, Inc. (NFF), a Mid-Atlantic-based, performance focused IT business solutions provider, today shared that the NFF management team participated in the Maryland Association of Counties (MACo) Summer 2021 Conference, which is dedicated to strategic planning, evolving service delivery, emergency communications, and advancing technologies.

The MACo Summer 2021 Conference featured technology leaders, tech-focused educational sessions for local government officials, and partnership-building opportunities.

“Through participation in the Summer 2021 Conference, NFF is supporting the MACo mission of improving ways to conduct business, educate our schoolchildren, and govern our communities,” commented Chris Peabody, chief strategy officer at NFF.
