

Networking For Future (NFF) To Sponsor The Impact Golf 2021 Tournament

WASHINGTON, September 13, 2021 – Networking For Future, Inc. (NFF), a performance focused IT business solutions provider, today shared that NFF is a major sponsor of the seventh annual Impact Golf Tournament scheduled for 24 September 2021, which is dedicated to raising funds for brain tumor research.

According to the National Brain Tumor Society \(NBTS\), an estimated 700,000 people in the United States are living with a primary brain tumor, and over 86,000 more were diagnosed in 2019. Brain tumors do not discriminate, inflicting men, women, and children of all races and ethnicities.

The Impact Golf Tournament provides an afternoon of exceptional golf, comradery, and fund raising, while also implementing rigid COVID-19 mitigation measures, providing a virtually touchless environment to keep everyone safe. All proceeds from the Impact Golf event are donated to the NBTS and Children's National Hospital \(CNH\) Brain Tumor Institute.

“Through a major sponsorship of the Impact Golf Tournament, NFF is honored to further our commitment to the event as it prepares to celebrate its 7th Anniversary and to the goals of the NBTS and CNH Brain Tumor Institute,” said Majid Saadat, president at NFF. “We’re glad to help support brain tumor research awareness.”

“With today’s news, we are extremely thankful for NFF’s sponsorship, support, and their continued commitment to the Impact Golf Tournament,” commented Chris Peabody, Co-Founder of Impact Golf and chief strategy officer at NFF. “Through sponsorship of the event, NFF is funding the NBTS and CNH Brain Tumor Institute missions of finding better treatments and, one day, a cure for brain tumors, while also raising invaluable awareness.”
