

WASHINGTON, November 1, 2022 – Networking For Future, Inc. (NFF), a performance focused IT solutions provider, today shared that NFF was a major sponsor of the eighth annual Impact Golf Tournament which was held on October 24th, 2022. Impact Golf is dedicated to raising funds for brain tumor research. According to the National Brain Tumor Society \(NBTS\), an estimated 700,000 people in the United States are living with a primary brain tumor, and over 86,000 more were diagnosed in 2019. Brain tumors do not discriminate, inflicting men, women, and children of all races and ethnicities.

The Impact Golf Tournament provides an afternoon of exceptional golf, comradery, and fund raising in the ongoing fight to eliminate brain tumors. All proceeds from the Impact Golf event are donated to the NBTS and Children's National Hospital \(CNH\) Brain Tumor Institute.

“Through a major sponsorship of the Impact Golf Tournament, NFF was honored to continue our commitment to the event on its 8th Anniversary and to the goals of the NBTS and CNH Brain Tumor Institute,” said Majid Saadat, Founder and President of NFF. “Our entire company takes great pride in our effort to support brain tumor research and awareness.”

“We are extremely thankful for NFF’s ongoing sponsorship, support, and their continued commitment to the Impact Golf Tournament,” commented Chris Peabody, Co-Founder of Impact Golf and Chief Strategy officer at NFF. “Through their ongoing sponsorship of the event, NFF is funding the NBTS and CNH Brain

Tumor Institute missions of finding better treatments and, one day, a cure for brain tumors, while also raising invaluable awareness of the issue.”
